FROM WASHINGTON THIS AFTERNOON.

20s. 6d.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] Washington, February 20,

The Surratt Case. It is understood that ex-Governor Thomas H.

Ford and Colonel P. A. Hinckley have been re-tained as counsel in the case of John H. Surratt, on the charge of murder. His appearance is unusually neat and cleanly and his face is intelligent enough tohave made him the active and confidential companion of Booth. The prisoner had heretofore repeatedly denied that he was Surratt, but yesterday, when he was about to be delivered into the hands of the United States Marshal, the following colloquy

Marsha!-Is your name John H. Surratt?

Marshal—Is your name John H. Surratt?
Prisoner—It is, sir.
Marshal—Then, sir, I arrest you by virtue of a bench warrant, issued to me by the Criminal Court of the District of Columbia.
Surratt, on arriving at jail, appeared cheerful, and informed Warden Brown that he wished to give him as little trouble as possible. He inquired particularly for his sister, saying he thought she was dead.
When asked if there was anything he wanted.

When asked if there was anything he wanted, he said he would like the privilege of smoking, which was granted him.

The crew of the Swatara was this morning transferred to the steamer Marblehead, to be sent to the steamer New Hampshire at Norfolk. Presidential Approvals. -

Also a bill authorizing and directing the Secretary of War to purchase for the Government of the United States, David's Island, in Long Island Sound, at the sum of $25,500, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the lease of Simeon Island, dated March 30, 1863, by which the Island was leased to the United States, and is now occupied by the same. The Committee to Investigate the Charges of Collusion. The Special Committee, of which Mr. Wentworth, of Illinois, is Chairman, to inquire into the truth of the alleged bargaining between the President and certain Republican members of the House, had its first meeting to-day. Nothing was done beyond summoning several witnesses. Financial Prospects.

The Loan Certificate bill is locked up in the Banking Committee. Four prominent members of the Ways and Means Committee are absent. There is no prospect of any further financial action by this Congress. Mr. Greeley and the Postmaster-Generalship. It is denied that Horace Greeley has been offered the Postmasier-Generalship, but it is certain that Mr. Randall has offered to resign.

Indian Treaties. A treaty was entered into yesterday with the Sisseton and Morpeton bands of Sioux Indians, from the northeastern portion of Dacotah Ter-ritory, providing for settling them on reserva-tions in the eastern portion of the territory.

A treaty has been made with the Sacs and Foxs of Minnesoia, providing for their removal from that State to the western part of Dacotah. Also, with the Stockbridge tribe of Wisconsin. providing for the sale of ands now occupied by them, and removing them to reservations in another part of the State.

Scenes in Congress.

There is great confusion in the House to-day over the various amendments proposed to the Senate substitute for the Military Government bill. The ball was opened by the motion of Mr. Blaine to concur in the Senate amendment with the amendment offered last night by Mr. Wilson of lower declarate areas and many of the senate amendment offered last night by Mr. Wilson, of lows, declaring certain persons in-eligible to seats in State Constitutional Conven-tions and to vote for members of such conven-tions. The demand for the previous question was negatived by only four majority, and this increased the excitement.

An amendment, offered by Mr. Shellabarger, declaring that until the people of said rebellious States shall, in due form of law, be admitted into Congress, the civil Government which may exist there shall be deemed to be pravisional only and subject to the authority of the United States, and all elections of officers for such Governments shall be conducted only by persons named in the fifth section of this act, was adonted.

The vote on Mr. Wilson's amendment, as amended, is now being taken, and it is evident that it will be carried by a large majority. The understanding is that the Senate amendment as thus amended will be immediately, passed by the House, and that the Senate will concur in the House amendment.

The Senate amendment as amended by the House has just passed the House by a vote of 125 to 46, every Republican voting for it but M2. Hawkins, of Tennessee, and Mr. Hubbell, of Obline 1.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

Washington, February 26.

Mr. Morrill (Ms.), from the Commiltee of Conference on the bill to fix the compensation of balliffs and criers of the Courts of the District of Columbia, made a report, which was agreed to.

Mr. Arthony (h. I.), from the Committee on Printing, repeated back a resolution to provide saits on the floor of the Senate for the reporters of the New York Associated Press, and the United States and European News Association and asked to be discharged from in their consideration of the subject. Mr. Anthony stabed that, since the resolution was offered, the U. S. and European Association had been dissolved. Several Senators had spoken to him in favor of a sont for the reporter of the New York Associated Press, but he understood from the reporter that he did not wish sev such accommodation if it was to be looked upon in the light of an obligation, or if there were any Senators to object to it. The committee was discharged. Mr. Pomeroy (Kan.) presented the resolutions of the Kansas Legislature in favor of the admission of Colorado. Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Doolittle (Wis.) presented the memorial of the Wisconsin Legislature for an additional appropriation for the Piar's Exposition expenses. Ordered to be printed.

The Chair laid before the Senate the certificate of the Governor of Pennsylvania that the State of Pennsylvania had ratified the fourteenth article to the Constitution. Mouse of Representatives.

Mr. Bingham (Ohio) moved to correct the journal in the entry in reference to the death of Samuel Down-ing, described as the last surviving soldier of the Revolutionary War, by making it read the last survi-viving soldier of the Revolutionary War whose mines was borns on the pension rolls. made. Mr. Myers (Pa.) asked leave to offer a resolution irreding that, after the Tax bill shall have been acced directing that, after the Tax bill shall have been acted on, all regular orders except the morning hour and all special orders shall be set aside, and the Tariff bill shall be the special order until disposed of.

Several members objected.

On motion of Mr. Schenck (Ohlo), the Secretary of War was directed to communicate all correspondence between the Commandant of the United States Arsenal at Augusta, Georgia, and the President of the Augusta and Summersville Railroad Company in reference to the extension of that railroad to the Arsenal.

Arrenal,

Mr. McRuer (Cal.), from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill giving the right of war and making a grant of land to the Sierra Nevada and Contra Costa Frigation and Canal Company in California.
Recommitted and ordered to be printed.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill to provide efficient governments for the Rebel States.

States.

Mr. Blaine (Ms.) withdrew his motion to recede from the disagreement to the Senate amendment, and moved the previous question on the motion of Mr. Wilson (Iowa) to concur with the Senate amendment, with an amendment to the nich section, as follows:—
Provided, That no person excluded from the privilegs of holding office by the said proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the Convention to frame a Constitution for any of said Rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such Convention.

Mr. Shellabarger (Ohio) asked Mr. Blaine to with draw the previous question, to enable him to offer an amendment.

amendment.

Mr. Blaine absolutely refused to do so.

Mr. Shellabarger then expressed the hope that the Hense would not second the previous question.

Mr. Banks asked Mr. Wilson to modify his amendment, so as to extend the disqualification to voters.

Mr. Blaine objected resolutely to any debate being allowed. The House voted by tellers on seconding the pre-ious question, and refused to second it—yeas, 7:

Shellabarger (Ohlo) then moved the following as an amendment:—

'And be it further enacted, that until the people of the anid Rebel States shan be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil governments that may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and shall be in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control, or supersuch provisional governments, who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third section of the said Constitutional amendment.'

the third section of the said Constitutional amendment."

The previous was moved and seconded,
Mr. Ross (HL) inquired whether it was in order to move to refer the amendment to a committee to have it condensed and simplified.

The Speaker replied in the negative.
Mr. Boyer (Pa.) moved to lay the bill and amendments on the table. Negatived without a division.

The question was then taken on Mr. Shellabarger's amendment, and it was adopted—year, 98: nays, 70.

The question then recurred on agreeing to Mr. Wilson is motion to concur with the Senate amendment, with the amendment offered by Mr. Wilson, as that was amended by Mr. Shellabarger, 'The vote was taken by year and nays and resulted—years, 125; mays, 46; a strict party vote. So the Senate amendment as thus modified was agreed to, and the bill was, at a quarter past 10 clock, sent back to the Senate.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

[SPLCIAL CORRESPONDENCE EVENING TELEGRAPH.] HARRISBURG, February 19.

OPPOSED TO SUNDAY THAVEL.

opposed to sunday travel.

Mr. Coleman, of Lebanon, Mr. Randall, of Schuylkill, Mr. Fisher, of Lancaster, and the Young Men's Christian Association of Harrisburg, presented petitions to the Senate last evening in opposition to the cars running in Philedelphia on Sunday.

Last evening an effort was made in the House to get a vote on the bill to allow the people of Philadelphia to vote for or against the cars running on Sun'ay; and if decided in the affirmative, to make it a law without further legisiation. A motion to adjourn, however, prevailed. This is not to be considered as unfavorable to the passage of the bill in the House, but it is very questionable whether it will get through the Senate, as a number of that body are not only opposed to Sunday travel, but they hold that the Legislature has no right to give the power to the people to make laws for themselves. If it should happen to pass both branches, it will be with the "without regard to race or color" clause attached to it.

SOLDIERS' MONUMENT IN BUCKS. Colonel W. W. H. Davis, Editor of the Doyles-town Democrat, and late Colonel of the 164th Pennsylvania Regiment, has sont a circular here asking the generous and patriolic to con-tribute to a fund for the erection of a monument to the officers and men of his regiment. As nearly every county is engaged in a similar work, we are afraid that the gallant Colonel will not meet with much success in his unsel-fish duty outside of Bucks.

ANOTHER GENERAL BAILROAD LAW BILL, There have been three different bills intro-duced into the Senate for a free-railroad law. duced into the Senate for a free railroad law. Some of the Senators are under the Impression that the Legislature should not pass a free railroad law until the concurrent action of Maryland, Delaware, etc., is first obtained. But the pressure is so strong in the Senate that a bill in some shape or other will unquestionably pass at this session. The last bill, which is very carefully worded, provides that any number of citizens of Pennsylvania, not less than nine, may form a commany for the purpose of nine, may form a company for the purpose of constructing and maintaining a railway, to be operated by steam power, the articles of incor-poration not to be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth until at least $10,000 of stock for every mile of railway pro-posed to be made is subscribed thereto, and ten per centum paid thereon in good faith and in cash to the directors named in the articles of Seciation.

The stockholders of all corporations organized The stockholders of all corporations organized under this act are to be individually liable, to the amount of their stock, for the payment of wages of labor, materials furnished, right of way, property used, and damages incurred in the construction, maintenance, and operation of their respective rallways, that may be due and unpaid for a period not exceeding six months. A provision is made that it shall not be lawful to make any charge for the transportation of anthracite or bituminous coals, iron tation of anthracite or bituminous coals, from ore, pig metal, lumber, and agricultural pro-ducts transported in the cars owned by individuals, associations, or corporations other than the company owning or constructing the rail-way when transported thereon twenty or more miles, exceeding two cents per ton per mile, which shall include wheel toil, and not exceeding two and a half cents per mile when transported in the cars of the company.

No street, lane, alley, or highway, in any city or incorporated borough or district, shall be used, occupied, or appropriated by any railway company incorporated under this act, without the content of the municipal authorities and the payment of damages. All corporations under this act shall begin the survey of the route set forth in their respective charters and route set forth in their respective charters, and shall within six months thereafter file a com-plete map in the office of the Secretary of the Con monwealth, and in case of neglect to build the road, the right of priority shall cease, and the location can be taken up by any corpora-tion. The managers to consist of a President nd not less than six nor more than twelve Directors. The directors of any railway company created under this act shall have the power to borrow money, not exceeding in amount twenty thousand dollars per mile, and issue the bonds of the company therefor, payable at such time not exceeding fifty years, and at such rates of inteexceeding fifty years, and at such rates of interest not exceeding seven per cent. The Legislature reserves the right to impose upon any corporation so created such taxes upon its property, traffic, capital stock, and bonds as it may deem from time to time proper.

The Free Railway bill has been made the special order in the Senate to-morrow morning. It does not embrace passenger railways. It is expected that Mr. Bigham (Rep.) and Mr. Wallace (Dem.) will make powerful speeches in lace (Dem.) will make powerful speeches in favor of the measure. It is understood that the friends of the large railroad corporations in this State do not oppose the passage of the bill, of which I have given you a synopsis above, THE FIRST VETOES.

Governor Geary returned to the House this morning several bills which he had vetoed, These are the Governor's first veto messages, Hon, Benjamin H, Brewster is working very industriously in the State Department, and he takes particular pains to pass over all bills that come in conflict with the powers of the different courts and the general laws of the State.

ROAD JURORS. Mr. Wells has introduced a bill into the Senate making the pay of road jurors and viewers, in the city of Philadelphia, two dollars and a half per day.

AN EXCITING SESSION.

AN EXCITING SESSION.

The Senate was in session until nearly midnight, debating the act granting one-tenth of the proceeds of the land donated by Congress to the Pennsylvania Agricultural Society. Mr. Bigham, of Allegheny, and Mr. Lowry, of Erie, were particularly severe on the bill, looking at the Agricultural Society, as far as practical results were concerned, as a failure. Mr. Speaker Hall took the floor, and made an earnest fight in defense of the bill. [It is understood that Senator McCandless has a bill providing for a similar institution in the vicinity viding for a similar institution in the vicinity of Philadelphia.] The bill again came up this morning, and was passed by a very decided vote.

A CENTRAL OR MIDDLE PENITENTIARY. The rapid increase of population in this State, particularly in the middle portion of it, shows that crime steadily keeps pace with it, and that necessity demands that an additional penitentiary should be built in a central or middle situation. This is mroe apparent from the fact that both the Eastern and Western Penitentiaries have not sufficient accommodations for the criminals sent to them, and will, at this session, ask for large appropriations to make the criminals sent to them, and will, at this session, ask for large appropriations to make needed extensions and improvements. A bill, it is said, will soon be introduced into the Legislature, having for its object the building of an additional Penitentiary, in such a situation as can be readily reached by the courts of Dauphin, Perry, Cumberland, Juniala, Franklin, York, Snyder, Union, Lebanon, Lycoming, Columbia, Centre, Mifflin, Huntingdon, Blair, Schuylkill, and other counties. Harrisburg being the sent of government, and convenient for the conveyance of prisoners by railroad from the different middle counties, makes it a desirable site, if the Legislature should pass a law for the building of a third Penitentiary.

The high hill on the opposite side of the Susquehanna, in Cumberland county, appears to be a favorite spot with a number of persons who are interested in the subject. It is in a healthy situation, and convenient for the transportation of all the necessary building materials. It was originally intended to build the Capitof on this hill, which was fortified during the Rebellion, and is now known as Fort Washington.

MR. VERON FLETCHER'S "VENUS."

To the Editor of The Evening Telegraph :-Sir:-In looking over the newspapers of the 19th, I observed in the Age a criticism upon this painting, in which the writer, although just and honest, regarding the subject of criticism according to his own view of the matter. does not coincide with the numerous and almost unanimous opinions of critics, auntoalmost unanimous opinions of critics, anatomists, and connoisseurs of art who have had the pleasure of examining this very beautiful work. In the first place, the critic of the Age states that "Mr. Veron Fietcher is a young artist of this city." We will admit that Mr. Fletcher is not old yet, having had only some thirty years' experience as an artist. The critic of the Age informs us "that the pose of the form is wanting in ease and grace, the drawing is faulty in some particulars, and the face fails to realize the poetical conception." Now, I have heard the almost universal acknowledgment of good judges of art, that the ease and grace of the position in this picture is most perfect, and the drawing exceedingly fine and, being myself an anatomist, I challenge any one to point out a fault in the anatomical drawing of this figure.

I think, perhaps, that the difference between the "critic of the Age" and "ayself is merely a misunderstanding of the conception of the subject, according to "acidea of the artist. The many represents" to lead a of the artist. The many represents convey the idea of beauty and grace combined with sensuality and voluptivousness. Now, I contend that "Venus" was considered the perfection of grace and beauty, combined with purity, modesty, and chastity—a something to excite admiration, but not to pander to the grosser passions; and this, I conceive, was the study of the artist, and which he ceive, was the study of the artist, and which he has most faithfully placed on canvas.
